

Electronic Discovery and Information Law Group -- Recent News and Upcoming Events

- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a panelist on the topic of “Data Privacy Concerns” at the 15th Annual Electronic Discovery and Records Retention Conference (EDRR) in New York on November 10, 2011.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a presenter on “eDiscovery Case Law Update, Fall 2011,” a Fios webcast on recent e-discovery case law developments, on October 12, 2011.
- Los Angeles partner Gareth Evans was a presenter on the topic of "Understanding the Importance of Litigation Readiness and Using Innovation and Emerging Technologies in Document Review" at the "eDiscovery for Oil and Gas" conference sponsored by IQPC in Houston on September 26, 2011.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a presenter on “eDiscovery Case Law Update, Summer 2011,” a Fios webcast on recent e-discovery case law developments, on July 14, 2011.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was the moderator of “eDiscovery Case Law: The Judge Speaks,” a New York Law Journal webcast featuring Hon. Stephen C. Robinson (Retired U.S. District Court Judge) on May 12, 2011.
- New York partner Jennifer Rearden was the moderator of “GC Spotlight: A Discussion about Proportionality and Fed Rule 26(b)(2),” a New York Law Journal webcast on April 27, 2011.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a presenter on “eDiscovery Case Law Update, Winter/Spring 2011,” a Fios webcast on recent e-discovery case law developments, on April 4, 2011.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a panelist on the topic of “Women Thought Leader Panel: Trends From The Trenches” at LegalTech in New York City on February 1, 2011.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a panelist on the topic of "Efficiencies: Using Technology to Enhance Your Legal Practice, Prepare Your Case, and Save Your Clients Money" at the ABA Women In Products Liability Eleventh Annual Workshop in New York City on November 12, 2010.

GIBSON DUNN

Electronic Discovery and Information Law Group -- Recent News and Upcoming Events

- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was featured sharing her views on sanctions and the trends identified in Gibson Dunn's 2010 Mid-Year Electronic Discovery and Information Law Update in an article about the Qualcomm-Broadcom litigation entitled "Fatal Discovery" published in The American Lawyer and Corporate Counsel Litigation 2010 special report.
- San Francisco associate Matthew Kahn was a speaker on the topic of "Mid Year Summary of 2010 Electronic Discovery Cases" on an Association of Certified E-Discovery Specialists (ACEDS) podcast, first aired on September 9, 2010.
- Los Angeles partner Gareth Evans was a panelist on the topic of "Supporting an Alternative Staffing Model" at the ILTA conference in Las Vegas on August 24, 2010.
- New York partner Jennifer Rearden and New York of counsel Farrah Pepper were speakers on the topic of "Mid Year Summary of 2010 Electronic Discovery Cases" on an ESI Bytes podcast, first aired on July 23, 2010. Hon. Ron Hedges (Retired U.S. Magistrate Judge) also participated as a speaker. The podcast is available at <http://www.esibytes.com/?p=1383>.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper and San Francisco associate Matt Kahn were featured sharing their views on the trends identified in Gibson Dunn's 2010 Mid-Year Electronic Discovery and Information Law Update in a post entitled "First Half Trends in Electronic Discovery Sanctions" published by ComplianceWeek.com on July 20, 2010.
- The Gibson Dunn 2010 Mid-Year Electronic Discovery and Information Law Update was the focus of a detailed post entitled "Survey of 103 E-Discovery Cases in the First Half of 2010, the 'Campbell Soup Case' and the Wisdom of Andy Warhol" published on e-DiscoveryTeam.com on July 18, 2010.
- The Gibson Dunn 2010 Mid-Year Electronic Discovery and Information Law Update was the focus of an article entitled "Electronic Discovery Report: If You're Going to Mess Up E-Discovery Production, Don't Do It In the Second Circuit" published by the Am Law Litigation Daily on July 14, 2010.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a moderator at a session on the topic of "Deal with Challenges of Litigation Holds: Pension Committee & Progeny" at the Executive Counsel Institute's E-Discovery Conference in New York City on July 12, 2010.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a panelist on the topic of "Practical Implications of Recent E-Discovery Rulings: Advice from Outside Counsel" at an EPIC E-Discovery Luncheon in New York City on June 17, 2010. The event was hosted by Exterro.

GIBSON DUNN

Electronic Discovery and Information Law Group -- Recent News and Upcoming Events

- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a presenter at the ABA First Annual Electronic Discovery and Digital Evidence Practitioners' Workshop in Chicago on May 20, 2010. Ms. Pepper played the role of plaintiff's counsel at a mock Rule 26(f) session, followed by a mock Rule 16(b) conference before Hon. Frank Maas and Hon. Karla R. Spaulding.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a panelist on the topic of "Emerging Technologies and Social Networking: Ethics and New Challenges" at the IQPC 9th eDiscovery conference in San Francisco on April 28, 2010. Ms. Pepper was a member of the advisory board of the conference and Gibson Dunn was a sponsor of the conference.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was featured sharing her views on the potential impact of the United States Supreme Court opinion in City of Ontario, Calif. v. Quon in an article entitled "Texting case shows clear need for rules on tech tools" published by Business Insurance on April 26, 2010.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was featured sharing her views on best practices for employer policies governing electronic communications by employees in an article entitled "Policies should be consistent, up to date" published by Business Insurance on April 26, 2010.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a presenter on the topic of "Document Preservation and the Double-Edged Sword of Technology" at the Computer Forensics Show in New York City on April 20, 2010.
- Los Angeles partner Gareth Evans was a guest lecturer on the topic of electronic discovery and ethics at an Advanced Ethics class at Loyola Law School on March 23, 2010.
- Denver associate Casey Lewis was a presenter on the topic of "Managing Offshore Outsourced Document Review" at a Women In eDiscovery chapter meeting in Denver on February 16, 2010. The event was hosted by Gibson Dunn's Denver office.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a panelist on the topic of "The Future of eDiscovery: Emerging Trends in Law and Technology and How They Will Change Your Business" at LegalTech in New York City on February 2, 2010. The panel was hosted by EMC.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a panelist on the topic of "Preservation Road Trip: Begin With the End in Mind" at LegalTech in New York City on February 1, 2010. The panel was hosted by KPMG.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was featured in an article entitled "LegalTech Descends on New York" published by Law.com on January 29, 2010.

GIBSON DUNN

Electronic Discovery and Information Law Group -- Recent News and Upcoming Events

- Los Angeles partner Gareth Evans was a panelist on the topic of the California Electronic Discovery Act at a program entitled “Cost Savings in E-Discovery” hosted by Huron Consulting Group at the California Club in Los Angeles on October 27, 2009.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was featured sharing her views on e-discovery readiness in an article entitled “Report: Few Prepared for e-Discovery” published by Compliance Week on October 20, 2009.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a panelist on the “Women Thought Leader Panel” on the topic of “The Art of Negotiating eDiscovery” at the Masters Conference in Washington, D.C. on October 13, 2009.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a panelist on the topic of “Ethical Issues: Beware of the Camouflaged Thorns” at the 13th Annual Electronic Discovery and Records Retention Conference (EDRR) in New York on October 7, 2009.
- Denver partner Gregory Kerwin was a panelist at the “Leadership Series Debate on E-Discovery,” moderated by former Colorado Supreme Court Justice Rebecca Love Kourlis, in Denver on September 9, 2009. The event was hosted by the Institute for the Advancement of the American Legal System (IAALS). The video of the program is available at: <http://www.du.edu/legalinstitute/>.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was featured sharing her views on effective search methodology in an article entitled “Toward More Effective Search Terms for E-Discovery” published by Law360 on July 29, 2009.
- Los Angeles partner Gareth Evans was featured sharing his views on the California Electronic Discovery Act in an article entitled “California E-Discovery Rules Welcomed, With Questions,” published by Law360 on July 15, 2009.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a panelist on the topic of “E-discovery Issues and Trends” at LegalTech West in Los Angeles on June 24, 2009. The panel was hosted by KPMG.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a panelist on the topic of “Managing Electronic Documents” at the Document Retention and Destruction in New York seminar in New York on January 13, 2009. The panel was hosted by Lorman Education Services.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was the moderator of a day-long seminar entitled “Document Retention and Destruction in New York” in New York on June 13, 2008. The seminar was hosted by Lorman Education Services.

GIBSON DUNN

Electronic Discovery and Information Law Group -- Recent News and Upcoming Events

- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was a panelist on the topic of “Information Management – Cleaning House Before Company Comes: Managing Information for More Predictable eDiscovery” at LegalTech West in Los Angeles on June 26, 2008. The panel was hosted by KPMG.
- New York of counsel Farrah Pepper was featured sharing her views on pending changes to state discovery rules in an article entitled “States Moving to Adopt e-Discovery Rules” published by Compliance Week on May 6, 2008.
- San Francisco partner Chip Nierlich was a panelist on the topic of “Strategies for Cost-Effective Discovery and Case Management in the Information Age” in a webcast on March 19, 2008. The panel was hosted by LEXIS-NEXIS.

