

Eduardo Gallardo Elected Fellow by American College of Governance Counsel

Accolades | October 29, 2020

American College of Governance Counsel

New York partner Eduardo Gallardo was elected as a Fellow of the American College of Governance Counsel. The American College of Governance Counsel is a professional, educational, and honorary association of lawyers widely recognized for their achievements in the field of governance. The newly elected fellows were announced in October 2020.

Eduardo Gallardo focuses his practice on mergers and acquisitions, shareholder activism defense and corporate governance matters. He has extensive experience representing public and private buyers and sellers in connection with mergers, acquisitions and takeovers, both negotiated and contested. He has also represented public and private companies in connection with proxy contests, leveraged buyouts, spinoffs, divestitures, restructurings, recapitalizations, joint ventures and other complex corporate transactions.

Related Capabilities

Securities Regulation and Corporate Governance