Financial Times

The Financial Times recognized Gibson Dunn at the Asia Innovative Lawyer Awards 2023. The firm was recommended in the Innovation in Creating a New Standard category for the work of Singapore partner Paul Tan in leading the design of a model clause for contracts that expressly recognizes parties' right to choose their supervisory court for arbitration-related proceedings in Singapore. The awards were presented on May 5, 2023. Paul Tan leads Gibson Dunn's arbitration practice in Asia. He specializes in international arbitration (both commercial and investor state), international litigation and arbitration-related litigation. He acts for leading corporations, global insurers, financial institutions, funds and Asian governments across a range of industries and concerns, including telecoms, natural resources, technology and media, oil and gas, construction and real estate, private equity, banking and financial institutions and environmental, social and corporate governance.
