

Gibson Dunn Advises Cinven on the Disposal of its Stake in the Planasa Group to EW Group

Firm News | September 14, 2023

Gibson Dunn & Crutcher LLP advised private equity firm Cinven on the disposal of its stake in the Planasa Group, a global leader in the agri-food sector, to EW Group, a family-owned international group with key businesses in genetics, health, diagnostics, nutrition and food. This transaction will allow EW Group to strategically expand its breeding activities into the area of fruit and vegetable breeding. Gibson Dunn & Crutcher team was led by European Co-Chair of Private Equity Federico Fruhbeck, M&A and Private Equity partners Alice Brogi, Ariel Harroch and Judith Raoul-Bardy, as well as Labor & Employment partner Nataline Fleury. The firm acted alongside Spanish firm Perez-Llorca on this transaction.
