

Lawrence Zweifach Inducted into Lawdragon 500 Hall of Fame

Accolades | March 12, 2020

Lawdragon 500 Hall of Fame

New York partner Lawrence Zweifach was named to the Lawdragon 500 Hall of Fame. The 2020 inductions include 41 “legendary lawyers from dealmaking, the plaintiff bar, corporate litigation, public interest titans and academia.” The announcement was made March 12, 2020.

Larry Zweifach has extensive experience handling civil and criminal matters, including securities, antitrust, SEC, PCAOB and CFTC enforcement investigations and litigation, corporate governance, internal investigations, white collar criminal defense and complex commercial litigation. He regularly defends parallel proceedings that include shareholder class actions, antitrust class actions, derivative lawsuits, domestic and cross-border regulatory investigations, state attorney general investigations and federal grand jury investigations. He has served as trial counsel in a wide variety of cases, including securities, antitrust, accounting, auditing, RICO, mail and wire fraud, tax and bankruptcy, as well as contract, corporate control and partnership disputes.

Related Capabilities

Litigation