

Gaby Candes

Associate Attorney

gcandes@gibsondunn.com

T: +1 415.393.4632

San Francisco

Gabrielle Candes is an associate in the San Francisco office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. She currently practices in the firm's Litigation Department.

Gabrielle earned her J.D. from the University of Chicago Law School where she graduated with High Honors, Order of the Coif, and as a Kirkland & Ellis Scholar. During her time in law school, she served as an Articles Editor on The University of Chicago Law Review and in the Jenner & Block Supreme Court and Appellate Clinic and The Exoneration project Clinic. She received Pro Bono Honors for her commitment to pro bono work during law school, and her pro bono practice at the firm includes civil rights and immigration matters.

Prior to law school, Gabrielle graduated from Stanford University Phi Beta Kappa and with distinction with both a B.A. in Philosophy and a B.S. in Mathematical and Computational Sciences.

Gabrielle is admitted to practice in the State of California.

Capabilities

Litigation
Antitrust and Competition
Appellate and Constitutional Law
Intellectual Property
Trials

Credentials

Education

University of Chicago Law School - 2024
Juris Doctor
Stanford University - 2021 Bachelor of Science
Stanford University - 2021 Bachelor of Arts

Admissions

California Bar