Andrew L. Fabens is a partner in the New York office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. Mr. Fabens serves as co-partner in charge of the New York office, co-chair of Gibson Dunn's Capital Markets Practice Group and is a member of Gibson Dunn's Securities Regulation and Corporate Governance Practice Group.

Mr. Fabens advises companies on long-term and strategic capital planning, disclosure and reporting obligations under U.S. federal securities laws, corporate governance issues and stock exchange listing obligations. He represents issuers and underwriters in public and private corporate finance transactions, both in the United States and internationally. His experience encompasses initial public offerings, follow-on equity offerings, investment grade, high-yield and convertible debt offerings and offerings of preferred, hybrid and derivative securities. In addition, he regularly advises companies and investment banks on corporate and securities law issues, including M&A financing, spinoff transactions and liability management programs.

Mr. Fabens is ranked as a leading Capital Markets lawyer by Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business, Chambers Global: The World's Leading Lawyers for Business, The Legal 500 US, IFLR1000 and Legal Media Group's Expert Guides Guide to the World's Leading Banking, Finance and Transactional Lawyers. He is noted as being able to "readily adapt to his client's style, understand what they need and deliver it," that he is "so amazingly even-keeled that nothing throws him," and is a "strong and knowledgeable lawyer" who is very "practical in terms of assessing risk and moving forward." One client comments that "he combines his extensive knowledge of securities law with practicality and creative problem-solving; when we encounter novel and thorny issues, his responses are quick, thoughtful and useful." BTI Consulting named Mr. Fabens to its 2018 BTI Client Service All-Stars list, recognizing the "lawyers who truly stand out as delivering the absolute best client service" as determined by a poll of corporate counsel.

Mr. Fabens earned his Juris Doctor from Columbia Law School in 2000. He earned a Bachelor of Arts cum laude from the University of Michigan in 1989.
