Jonathan Griffin is a UK solicitor-advocate who specializes in complex cross-border litigation, white collar investigations and regulatory enforcement matters. He has represented financial institutions, multinational corporations and a government in complex multi-billion dollar transnational litigation in jurisdictions comprising England & Wales, France, Luxembourg, Switzerland, the Middle East, Caymans and the BVI among others. His sector experience includes oil and gas, infrastructure, aviation and financial services. In the UK, he frequently represents clients before the English High Court, Commercial Court and Court of Appeal.

Jonathan also has a substantial white collar investigations practice, and frequently represents clients in the finance, consulting and pharmaceutical industries in respect of anti-bribery, financial crime and market manipulation matters. Recently, he was the senior litigator appointed on long-term secondment to The Takeover Panel to advise it on some of its most important enforcement matters to date.

He is recognised by The Legal 500 UK 2024 for Regulatory Investigations and Corporate Crime.

Jonathan is a member of the firm's Transnational Litigation, White Collar and FCPA Practice Groups. He speaks fluent French and frequently undertakes matters with a francophone element.
