

Matthew A. Kaplan

Associate Attorney

mkaplan@gibsondunn.com

T: +1 212.351.2492

New York

Matthew Kaplan is a corporate associate in the New York office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. He is a member of the firm's Securities Regulation & Corporate Governance Practice Group.

Matthew received his Juris Doctor from Columbia Law School in 2019, where he was a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar. While in law school, he served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Jack B. Weinstein of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York.

Matthew holds a Master of Studies in Global and Imperial History from the University of Oxford and a Bachelor of Arts in History from King's College London, where he graduated with first class honors.

Prior to joining Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, he was an associate in the New York office of Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson, where he worked on a variety of capital markets and public company matters.

Matthew is admitted to practice law in the State of New York.

Capabilities

Securities Regulation and Corporate Governance

Capital Markets

Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG)

Credentials

Education

Columbia University - 2019 Juris Doctor

University of Oxford - 2013 Master of Studies

King's College London - 2011 Bachelor of Arts

Admissions

New York Bar