Monica K. Loseman is a co-chair of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher's Securities Litigation Practice Group and co-chair of the Accounting Firm Advisory and Defense Practice Group. Recognized by Chambers, Lawdragon, Benchmark Litigation, and Super Lawyers as a top rated Securities Litigator, Ms. Loseman has substantial experience in a variety of complex civil and corporate litigation matters. She was featured as one of Lawdragon's "500 Leading Litigators in America" from 2023 to 2025, which recognizes "attorneys who excel representing principally corporations and other organizations in litigating claims." She was also featured as a Law Week Colorado 2017 "Lawyer of the Year" and Denver Business Journal 2016 "40 under 40" Winner. Most recently, Ms. Loseman was included in the 2024 edition of The Best Lawyers in America® for her work in Securities Regulation and was recognized as a "Future Star" by Benchmark Litigation.

Ms. Loseman focuses her practice in corporate and securities litigation, investment advisor and fund litigation and investigations, financial reporting, accounting and related investigations, and accountant defense. She has assisted clients in defending federal and state litigation, responding to investigations by various government agencies, including the Securities and Exchange Commission, Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, and the Department of Justice. Ms. Loseman also has substantial experience in corporate governance matters, including litigation related to mergers and acquisitions and control disputes. Ms. Loseman's trial experience includes three trials before SEC administrative law judges, several trials in Delaware Chancery, and bench, jury trials, and private arbitrations around the country. Ms. Loseman represents Board committees in conducting independent investigations involving allegations of corporate fraud and issues relating to financial reporting, accounting, internal controls, as well as special litigation matters and other issues, and is skilled at interacting with Board committees and other stakeholders in presenting results and recommendations. Clients have described Ms. Loseman as an "excellent oral advocate, organized, to the point and very client-focused."

Ms. Loseman was appointed to the Financial Accounting Standards Advisory Council in 2023. Ms. Loseman is a frequent speaker on SEC Enforcement and securities litigation matters and has co-authored several articles and contributed to texts regarding securities litigation topics. She is currently a Co-Chair of the Accounting Issues Subcommittee of the ABA Securities Litigation Committee and served on the Board of the Colorado Women's Bar Association in 2011/2012.

Ms. Loseman has long been dedicated to pro bono work: in 2006, Ms. Loseman was a member of the litigation team that received the Firm's inaugural Frank Wheat Memorial Pro Bono Award for the team's successful pro bono representation of a family seeking redress for multiple violations of their civil rights. Ms. Loseman is a Past-President and previously served on the Executive Committee of the Board for Disability Law Colorado, an organization dedicated to the protection and promotion of people with disabilities in Colorado.
