Patrick Perrier is a corporate associate in the Houston office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher where he currently practices in the firm's Finance Practice Group and Business Restructuring and Reorganization Practice Group. Patrick represents public and private companies, portfolio companies, investment funds and other financial institutions in connection with complex and bespoke special situations and other debt financing transactions. He frequently advises clients on debtor-in-possession, rescue, exit and other distressed financings, workouts and restructurings. Additionally, he regularly represents borrowers (including sponsors and their portfolio companies) and lenders in connection with transactions involving acquisition financing, asset-based lending (including reserve-based lending for oil and gas transactions), cash-flow based lending, investment-grade lending, preferred equity investments, bridge financing, mezzanine financing and subordinated debt financing.

Patrick earned his Juris Doctor from Vanderbilt University Law School in 2021, where he served as the Managing Authorities Editor for the Vanderbilt Law Review and was selected as a member of the Order of the Coif. He also was a recipient of Vanderbilt's Law and Business Certificate and a member of the Commodore cross country program. Patrick earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Energy Resources Engineering from Stanford University in 2018, where he was a member of the Cardinal cross country and track and field programs.
