Kirti Sarkar is of counsel in the San Francisco office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher and a member of the firm's Real Estate Practice Group.

Her practice is principally focused on representing lenders and borrowers in the origination of mortgage and mezzanine loans secured by all types of real estate collateral. She also represents balance sheet lenders, CMBS servicers and borrowers in connection with workouts, loan assumptions, equity transfers, and other loan modifications and requests. She also represents lenders buying and selling whole loans, notes and participations.

Kirti earned her law degree in 2012 from University of Pennsylvania Law School, where she was a Senior Editor on the Journal of Business Law. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and Interdisciplinary Humanities summa cum laude in 2009 from Michigan State University. Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Kirti was in-house counsel at a lender and an associate in the real estate finance departments of other national and international law firms in San Francisco.

She is admitted to practice law in California and Michigan.
