Galya Savir

Associate Attorney

gsavir@gibsondunn.com

T: +1 212.351.2399

New York

Galya Savir is an associate in the New York office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher and a member of the firm's Tax practice group.

She earned her doctoral degree from University of Virginia School of Law in 2020. Galya received a Tax LL.M. degree from University of Michigan Law School in 2017. She also holds an LL.B. degree and a B.A. degree in economics from University of Haifa, Israel.

Galya has been inducted into the Phi Kappa Phi honor society. She is the author of a treatise on regulation and tax law in outer space, which has been published by Wolters Kluwer.

She is admitted to practice in the States of New York and California.

Capabilities

Tax

Credentials

Education

University of Virginia - 2020 Doctor of Juridical Sciences

University of Michigan - 2017 Master of Laws (LL.M.)

University of Haifa - 2002 Bachelor of Arts

University of Haifa - 2002 Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.)

Admissions

New York Bar

Israel Bar

California Bar

GIBSON DUNN