Michael J. Scanlon is a partner in the Washington, D.C. office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. He is a member of the firm's Securities Regulation and Corporate Governance, Securities Enforcement, and Corporate Transactions Practice Groups, and has an extensive practice representing U.S. and foreign public company and audit firm clients on regulatory, corporate governance, and enforcement matters.

Mr. Scanlon advises corporate clients on SEC compliance and disclosure issues, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, and corporate governance best practices, with a particular focus on financial reporting matters. He frequently represents both accounting firms and public company clients on SEC and PCAOB accounting and auditing matters, including financial statement materiality and restatement issues, internal control issues, auditor independence, and other accounting-related disclosure issues. Mr. Scanlon has represented large accounting firms in enforcement investigations conducted by the SEC, PCAOB, and state accountancy boards. He also is experienced in conducting internal investigations involving accounting irregularities for management, audit committees, and other Board committees, and represents clients on these matters before the SEC. Mr. Scanlon also represents several public company boards of directors and audit committees, as well as not-for-profit organizations, with respect to corporate governance and other compliance matters.

Mr. Scanlon has served as Chair of the ABA's Law and Accounting Committee, Business Law Section, and as Chair of the DC Bar's Law and Accounting Committee. Mr. Scanlon currently serves as one of eight lawyers nationwide on the National Conference of Lawyers and Certified Public Accountants, a joint ABA-AICPA standing task force. He also is a member of the Society of Corporate Secretaries and Governance Professionals.

Mr. Scanlon also is a frequent speaker and author on securities regulatory and enforcement matters and corporate governance matters. Recent speaking engagements include:

- "Audit Committees in Action: The Latest Developments," TheCorporateCounsel.net's Webcast (January 2016)
- "The Evolving Audit Committee and Auditor Relationship," Society of Corporate Secretaries and Governance Professionals, Annual Meeting (October 2015)
- "The SEC's Renewed Focus on Financial Reporting," ABA Business Law Section, Spring Meeting (April 2014)
- "Key Accounting and Auditing Issues for Lawyers 2013," ABA Business Law Section, Fall Meeting (November 2013)

Mr. Scanlon also frequently appears as a speaker at continuing legal education programs for various clients. Mr. Scanlon has authored or co-authored more than thirty articles on securities regulatory, corporate governance, and enforcement-related matters.
