Elsie Stone is an associate in the London office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher and a member of the Antitrust and Competition practice group.

She advises on a variety of contentious and non-contentious UK and EU competition law matters, including complex merger control matters, cartel investigations and other competition law compliance issues such as abuse of dominance.

Elsie's experience covers a wide range of industries, including telecommunications, primary industries such as dairy and forestry, and grocery retail.

Elsie is a New Zealand qualified solicitor, having previously practised in the competition law department of a leading international firm in that country.
