

Ten Years Post-Therasense: Closing the Gap Between Walker Process Fraud and Inequitable Conduct

Article | December 6, 2021

Orange County of counsel Anne Brody is the co-author of "Ten Years Post-Therasense: Closing the Gap Between Walker Process Fraud and Inequitable Conduct," [PDF] published by The Journal of the Antitrust and Unfair Competition Law Section of the California Lawyers Association in its Fall 2021, Vol. 31, No. 2. issue.

Related People

Anne Y. Brody

The article was originally published at <https://calawyers.org/publications/antitrust-unfair-competition-law/competition-fall-2021-vol-31-no-2-ten-years-post-therasense-closing-the-gap-between-walker-process-fraud-and-inequitable-conduct/>

Related Capabilities

Antitrust and Competition