

Webcast: FCPA Trends in the Emerging Markets

Webcasts | January 17, 2023

As many countries continue to loosen COVID-19 related restrictions, lawmakers and regulators around the world face corruption challenges accompanying renewed economic activity and aggressive market expansion, while starting to address the unique bribery and corruption cases that arose during a near-global shutdown that was accompanied by record levels of government spending. This webcast will explore the approach taken by emerging markets in addressing these challenges and examine the trends seen in FCPA and local anti-corruption enforcement actions.

PANELISTS: Kelly Austin leads Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher's White Collar Defense and Investigations practice for Asia, is a global co-chair of the Firm's Anti-Corruption & FCPA practice, and is a member of the Firm's Executive Committee. Ms. Austin is ranked annually in the top-tier by Chambers Asia Pacific and Chambers Global in Corporate Investigations/Anti-Corruption: China. Her practice focuses on government investigations, regulatory compliance and international disputes. Ms. Austin has extensive expertise in government and corporate internal investigations, including those involving the FCPA and other anti-corruption laws, and anti-money laundering, securities, and trade control laws. Joel M. Cohen is a partner in Gibson Dunn & Crutcher's New York office and Co-Chair of the firm's global White Collar Defense and Investigations Practice Group. Mr. Cohen's successful defense of clients has been noted in numerous feature articles in the American Lawyer and the National Law Journal, including for pretrial dismissal of criminal charges and trial victories. He is highly-rated in Chambers and named by Global Investigations Review as a "Super Lawyer" in Criminal Litigation. He has been lead or co-lead counsel in 24 civil and criminal trials in federal and state courts, and he is equally comfortable in leading confidential investigations, managing crises or advocating in court proceedings. Mr. Cohen's experience includes all aspects of FCPA/anticorruption issues, in addition to financial institution litigation and other international disputes and discovery. Benno Schwarz is a partner in the Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher Munich office and Co-Chair of the firm's Anti-Corruption & FCPA Practice Group, where his practice focuses on white collar defense and compliance investigations.
